

From the desk of Santa Claus Christmas 2007

Dear <<Name>> ,

Christmas is almost here. This is an exciting time of the year, especially for your family. Everyone has been so excited to celebrate your first Christmas. I also have been looking forward to visiting you and your family.

Right now you are only <<Age>> old, the elves and I know you don't know what is going on right now. But soon you will start feeling the excitement that comes at Christmas time. I enjoy making my trip around the world bringing toys and goodies to all the good girls and boys of the world.

To help you get prepared for future years I will let you know a few things I look for when I am making my list. Make sure that you don't whine, fuss or pout. Keep your room clean, brush your teeth and be nice to others. One thing that you will learn as you grow is I can see everything and keep a list of all the children of the world. So I know who is being naughty and who is being nice.

Well it is time for me to go I have lots of letters to read and write. I can also smell the cookies that Mrs. Claus is making, yummy! Mrs. Claus and the elves want me to make sure that you know they are excited for your first Christmas also. See you soon.

Love your friend,

Santa Claus

PS – Rudolph wanted me to tell you Hi, and wish you Merry Christmas from him and the rest of the reindeer.
